- To be a top creator of shareholder wealth through focus on profitable growth
- To be a young organization leveraging on technology & an experienced workforce
- To be the most trusted brand, admired by all stakeholders
- To be a leader in the area of Financial Inclusion

1.3. Our Core Values

At Union Bank of India, our core values guide our behaviour and decision-making processes, ensuring that we maintain the highest standards of integrity and professionalism in all our activities. Our core values are encapsulated in the acronym ETHICS:

E - Excellence: We strive for excellence in every aspect of our work. This means delivering the highest quality of service to our customers, continuously improving our processes, and fostering innovation. Excellence is not just a goal but a standard that we consistently uphold in our daily operations.

T - Transparency: Transparency is critical to building trust with our stakeholders. We ensure that our actions and decisions are open, clear, and understandable. By maintaining transparency, we foster an environment of accountability and integrity, where stakeholders can have confidence in our operations.

H - Humanity: We prioritize the well-being and dignity of all individuals, treating everyone with empathy, compassion, and respect. We foster a culture of inclusivity and support, recognizing the inherent value of every person.

I - Integrity: Integrity means doing the right thing, even when no one is watching. We adhere to the highest ethical standards and ensure that our actions are consistent with our values. Integrity guides us in making decisions that are not only legally compliant but also morally sound.

C - Customer Centricity: Our customers are at the heart of everything we do. We prioritize their needs and work tirelessly to provide exceptional service. Customer centricity drives us to understand and anticipate our customers' needs, delivering solutions that exceed their expectations.

S - Sustainability: Sustainability involves responsibly managing our resources to ensure long-term success and positive impact. We are committed to practices that benefit our business, communities, and the environment. Sustainability ensures that we contribute positively to the world while achieving our goals.

1.4. The Purpose of This Code

The purpose of this Code of Ethics is to provide clear guidelines and principles for ethical behaviour and decision-making at Union Bank of India. This Code:

- Sets Standards: Establishes the ethical standards expected of all employees, contract staff, and stakeholders.
- Promotes Integrity: Fosters a culture of integrity, honesty, and transparency in all our interactions with customers, colleagues, investors, and other stakeholders.
- Guides Conduct: Provides a framework for making ethical decisions and conducting business responsibly.
- Ensures Compliance: Ensures adherence to applicable laws, regulations, and internal policies.
- Builds Trust: Strengthens trust and confidence among customers, employees, and stakeholders to achieve more together by demonstrating commitment to ethical behavior, believing in each other, and drawing strength from team-work.
- Speak Up: Empowers employees to report any conduct that could be detrimental to the interests of the bank or its stakeholders and protect those who escalate concerns.

1.5. Applicability of the Code

This Code of Ethics applies to all individuals and entities associated with Union Bank of India, including:

- Employees: All employees of Union Bank of India, regardless of their location, or classification (including directors, officers, and staff), are bound by this Code. This encompasses permanent, temporary, contract, and part-time staff.
- Representatives and Business Partners: Consultants, vendors, agents, and other stakeholders who represent or conduct business with the bank are also expected to adhere to the principles of this Code in their interactions and dealings with the bank.

Any conduct that falls short of the standards set out in this Code and related policies may result in disciplinary action under the relevant service/conduct rules applicable to the individual or entity concerned.

Adherence to this Code and its underlying principles is crucial for preserving our reputation and maintaining the public trust in Union Bank of India. Each employee has a duty to understand and follow this Code, and to reaffirm their commitment annually. It is our collective responsibility to ensure that the guidelines set out in this Code are diligently pursued and upheld, fostering a culture of integrity and ethical excellence throughout our organization.

2. Ethical Principles in Action

Union Bank of India is dedicated to upholding the highest ethical standards and ensuring compliance with all relevant laws, regulations, and internal policies. We are committed to ethical leadership, providing regular training and resources to our employees, and implementing effective mechanisms to monitor and enforce compliance with this Code. Our goal is to foster a culture of integrity and accountability, ensuring that our actions align with our values and ethical principles.

2.1. Our Conduct as Union Bank of India Employees

2.1.1. Upholding Integrity and Professionalism

At Union Bank of India, every employee is expected to uphold the highest standards of integrity, professionalism, and courtesy. This encompasses being punctual, ethical, and transparent in all dealings. Integrity, professionalism, and courtesy form the bedrock of our reputation and success. Employees must act with honesty, avoid conflicts of interest, and ensure that their behavior reflects the core values of the bank.

2.1.2. Fostering a Respectful and Inclusive Workplace

We are committed to creating a workplace that is respectful and inclusive. Every employee has the right to work in an environment where she/ he is treated with dignity and respect. Discrimination, harassment, or any form of disrespectful behaviour will not be tolerated. We value diversity and believe that an inclusive workplace enhances our ability to serve our customers and achieve our goals.

2.1.3. Safeguarding Confidential Information

Confidentiality is paramount at Union Bank of India. Employees must protect all confidential and proprietary information related to the bank, its customers, and other stakeholders. Unauthorized disclosure or misuse of such information is strictly prohibited. It is the responsibility of each employee to ensure that confidential information is used solely for business purposes. In today's digital age, safeguarding the bank's information also includes ensuring a strong cyber security framework. All employees must adhere to cyber security protocols, protect their user IDs, passwords, and PINs, and prevent unauthorized access to bank systems and data.

2.1.4. Managing Conflicts of Interest

Employees must avoid situations where their personal interests conflict, or appear to conflict, with the interests of the bank. Any potential conflicts of interest must be disclosed to the appropriate authority. CGM - HR shall be the competent authority to take final decision on such states. Employees are expected to act in the best interests of Union Bank of India at all times, ensuring that their personal interests do not influence their professional decisions.

2.1.5. Responsible Use of Bank Resources and Records

Employees are expected to use the bank's resources responsibly and ensure the accuracy and integrity of all records and reports. Misuse or misrepresentation of the bank's resources or records is unacceptable. Accurate record-keeping and responsible use of resources are essential for maintaining the trust and confidence of our stakeholders. Sharing of confidential information, circulars, or any data related to the bank on social media is strictly prohibited. Furthermore, employees are expected to exercise judicious expenditure, ensuring that all expenses are reasonable, justifiable from a business perspective, and processed through proper channels.

2.1.6. Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption

Union Bank of India has a zero-tolerance policy towards bribery and corruption. Employees must not engage in any form of bribery or corrupt practices and must report any such activities to the relevant authorities. Upholding anti-bribery and anti-corruption standards is critical to maintaining the integrity of our operations and reputation.

2.1.7. Acceptance of Gifts

Employees are prohibited from accepting gifts, favours, or any other benefits that may influence their professional judgment or create a conflict of interest. Acceptance of gifts is only permissible within the limits defined by the bank's guidelines and must be reported to the appropriate authority. The bank encourages transparency and discourages any actions that may compromise its integrity.

2.1.8. Insider Trading

Employees must not use, or share, any non-public information for personal gain or for the benefit of others. Insider trading is strictly prohibited and is subject to legal consequences. Employees are expected to comply with all relevant norms, regulations and instructions related to insider trading, ensuring that confidential information is protected and not misused.

2.1.9. Compliance with Laws and Regulations

Employees are required to comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, and internal policies. Any instances of non-compliance must be reported promptly to the appropriate authorities. Adhering to legal and regulatory requirements is essential for maintaining the bank's integrity and reputation.

2.1.10. Compassion

Compassion, sharing, and kindness are values that employees should inculcate in their decision-making. Employees should empathize with customers and remain committed to helping them within the ambit of defined rules. Compassionate service fosters positive relationships and trust between the bank and its customers.

2.1.11. Undue Influence

Employees must not influence or attempt to influence any transaction or process, including the sanction of loans, promotions, transfers, etc., to gain improper personal benefits for themselves, friends, or relatives. The use of personal, social, professional, political, or any external influence to exert undue pressure on processes, colleagues, vendors, or others is strictly prohibited and against the Bank's standards.

2.1.12. Political Activities and Contributions

Employees are prohibited from taking an active part in politics, representing political parties, or contesting elections outside the Bank. Volunteering personal services during Bank hours for political candidates or lobbying is not allowed. Employees must not use the Bank's resources for political contributions unless expressly permitted by law and pre-approved by the appropriate Bank authorities.

2.1.13. Workplace Safety

The Bank strives to provide a safe work environment in compliance with local laws and regulations governing workplace health and safety. Employees must take all reasonable measures to prevent workplace accidents and injuries, provide adequate health and safety information to colleagues and customers, and ensure that visitors follow appropriate procedures. Creating a hostile or unsafe work environment will not be tolerated and the possession or use of alcohol, drugs, ammunition or firearms (unless permitted viz. authorized security personnel), or other hazardous items in the workplace is prohibited.

2.1.14. Charitable Contributions, Civic Activities, and Sponsorships

Personal activities related to charitable and educational endeavours should not interfere with official work or conflict with the Bank's interests. When engaged in such activities, employees must ensure there is no implied support from the Bank unless explicitly authorized.

2.1.15. Interaction with Media

Official communication with the media, including speeches, interviews, blog posts, and other public statements, must be authorized by the Corporate Communications department. Employees should be cautious in situations where they may be perceived as representing the Bank and refrain from making unauthorized statements.

2.1.16. Social Media

While social media is a valuable tool for building relationships, employees must exercise discretion and adhere to the bank's guidelines when engaging on these platforms. Personal email IDs should be used for personal social media activities, and employees should avoid discussions that may offend religious, racial, or political sentiments. Additionally, employees must refrain from posting content that is offensive, defamatory, or in violation of the Bank's policies or applicable laws.

2.1.17. Managing Personal Finances

Employees must manage their personal finances prudently to avoid excessive indebtedness or bankruptcy, which could undermine their credibility and that of the Bank. Personal financial transactions with colleagues, customers, or suppliers, such as borrowing or lending money, are prohibited unless the other party is a close relative or friend and the transaction is not based on the Bank's business.

2.1.18. Prohibitions for Engaging in Speculative Activities

Employees are prohibited from engaging in speculative activities such as speculative trading, gambling, online gaming, and betting. These activities can lead to financial losses, addiction, and may even compromise the employee's integrity and the bank's reputation. The bank encourages responsible financial behavior and discourages any actions that may lead to financial instability or reputational risk.

2.1.19. Prohibition for Engaging in Other Employment Activity

Employees are expected to devote their full attention and energies to their duties at the bank. Engaging in any other employment or business activity while in service is strictly prohibited, as it may lead to conflicts of interest and compromise the bank's interests.

2.1.20. Workplace Dress Code

Employees should dress in a manner that reflects professionalism and attention to detail, as this impacts the Bank's image. Formally dressed employees convey commitment and professionalism, whereas casual attire can suggest a lack of seriousness.

2.1.21. Demonstration

Employees must not engage in demonstrations that are prejudicial to the sovereignty and integrity of India, the security of the State, friendly relations with foreign States, public order, decency, or morality. Activities that involve contempt of court, defamation, or incitement to an offense are strictly prohibited.

2.2. Our Commitment to Customers

2.2.1. Providing Excellent Service

At Union Bank of India, our customers are at the heart of everything we do. We are committed to providing excellent service that meets and exceeds their expectations. This means being responsive to their needs, providing accurate and timely information, and delivering services with courtesy and professionalism. Our goal is to build long-lasting relationships based on trust and mutual respect.

2.2.2. Ensuring Fairness and Transparency

Fairness and transparency are fundamental to our interactions with customers. We ensure that all our products and services are offered in a fair and transparent manner. This includes providing clear and complete information about the terms and conditions, fees, and any potential risks associated with our products and services. We believe that transparency fosters trust and helps our customers make informed decisions.

2.2.3. Inappropriate Sales and Commitments

Inducing customers to purchase unnecessary products or engaging in miss-selling to achieve targets is unacceptable. This practice adversely affects customers and erodes the Bank's credibility and reputation. Employees should help customers make informed decisions based on their needs and profiles. As the Bank acts in an advisory role for third-party products, it is imperative to suggest the right product mix that satisfies the customer's needs and risk profile.

2.2.4. Ease of Convenience

We are committed to addressing and resolving customer concerns promptly and effectively. Employees must handle complaints with empathy and professionalism. We strive to resolve issues to the satisfaction of our customers in a fair, consistent, and responsible manner while ensuring that we comply with all relevant regulations and policies. We keep our processes easy, simple and prompt.

2.3 Our Relationships with External Stakeholders

2.3.1. Engaging Ethically with Suppliers and Vendors

Union Bank of India is committed to engaging with suppliers and vendors in an ethical and transparent manner. We expect our suppliers and vendors to adhere to the same high standards of integrity and ethical behaviour that we uphold. This includes fair treatment, transparent dealings, and adherence to all contractual obligations. In order to promote ethical practices and to set ethical business conduct, an ethical clause will be included in agreements with vendors or any third party. This clause will ensure, vendors shall not engage in any activity that constitute conflict of interest or other unethical practices. The bank is also committed to create an environment to provide respect and dignity to its suppliers and onboard them through competitive bid processes to ensure fairness and transparency.

2.3.2. Collaborating with Regulators and Government

Maintaining a cooperative and transparent relationship with regulators and government entities is essential. Union Bank of India is committed to complying with all regulatory requirements and cooperating fully with regulatory and governmental authorities. We aim to maintain open and honest communication, providing accurate and timely information as required.

2.3.3. Building Trust with Investors and Shareholders

Trust and transparency are crucial in our relationships with investors and shareholders. We are committed to providing full, fair, and timely disclosure of information that accurately reflects the bank's performance and prospects. This includes regular communication through financial reports, investor meetings, and other disclosures as required by law. Our goal is to build and maintain the trust of our investors and shareholders by demonstrating our commitment to ethical management and governance. The integrity of our financial transactions and records is critical to the operation of our business, and our shareholders' trust is based on their confidence in the accurate recording of our financial transactions. We adhere to the best disclosure standards with complete and accurate records of our accounts and follow all laws, rules, and regulations in records, disclosures, and audits.

2.3.4. Treating Intermediaries Fairly

We deal with intermediaries in a transparent manner and are committed to fair contract and payment terms with them in return for the quality of outsourced services they provide to us. We ensure that the outsourced entities are aligned with our expectations in terms of the delivery of products or services and maintaining quality at competitive prices.

2.4 Upholding the Integrity of Our Business

2.4.1. Maintaining Financial Transparency and Accuracy

Union Bank of India is dedicated to maintaining the highest standards of financial transparency and accuracy. We ensure that all financial records and reports are complete, accurate, and in compliance with applicable standards and regulations. Transparent and accurate financial reporting is essential for maintaining the trust of our stakeholders and for making informed business decisions.

2.4.2. Managing Risk Responsibly

Effective risk management is crucial to the sustainability of our operations. We are committed to identifying, assessing, and managing risks in a proactive and responsible manner. This includes financial, operational, reputational, and compliance risks. By managing risks effectively, we protect the interests of our customers, employees, and stakeholders while ensuring the long-term success of the bank.

2.4.3. Protecting Against Financial Crime

Union Bank of India has robust measures in place to protect against financial crime, including fraud, money laundering, and terrorism financing. We comply with all relevant laws and regulations and implement comprehensive policies and procedures to detect, prevent, and report financial crimes. Our respective teams are trained to identify and report suspicious activities, ensuring that we maintain the integrity of our operations.

2.4.4. Competing Fairly and Ethically

We are committed to competing fairly and ethically in the marketplace. This means avoiding practices that are misleading, deceptive, fraudulent, or unfair. We comply with all competition laws and regulations and promote fair competition. By competing ethically, we ensure that we maintain our reputation and build lasting relationships with our customers and partners.

2.4.5. Protecting the Bank's Information and Assets

Protecting the bank's assets and Information is a shared responsibility of all employees. This includes physical assets, financial resources, and confidential information. Employees must use the bank's assets responsibly and protect them from misuse, or loss. Proper use and protection of the bank's physical and digital assets are essential for maintaining operational efficiency and safeguarding our resources. It is the duty of the employee that bank's confidential information shall not be shared with the third parties to protect bank's interest. Any information to be shared shall only be through the authorized channels after obtaining approval from the competent authorities.

2.4.6. Zero Tolerance to Internal Frauds

The Bank maintains a strict zero-tolerance policy towards any form of internal fraud. Any fraudulent activity, including but not limited to misappropriation of funds, manipulation of records, or misuse of bank resources, will be met with severe disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment and legal proceedings. The bank is committed to maintaining the highest levels of integrity and transparency in all its operations.

2.5 Our Role in the Community

2.5.1. Contributing to Social Well-being

Union Bank of India is committed to contributing to the social well-being of the communities in which we operate. We engage in various corporate social responsibility (CSR) initiatives that aim to improve the quality of life for individuals and communities. These initiatives include education programs, healthcare services, financial literacy campaigns, and support for underprivileged sections of society. As a responsible corporate citizen and one of the largest public sector banks in India, we also strive to facilitate economic growth across all geographies in the country while addressing the needs of the unbanked, needy, and marginalized sections of society. By actively participating in social welfare activities, we strive to make a positive impact on society.

2.5.2. Promoting Environmental Sustainability

Environmental sustainability is a key priority for Union Bank of India. We are committed to adopting practices that reduce our environmental footprint and promote the sustainable use of resources. This includes implementing energy-efficient technologies, reducing waste, and promoting recycling. We also support initiatives that aim to protect and preserve the environment. Furthermore, we aspire to become carbon neutral and actively collaborate with our stakeholders and partners to find ways to reduce our carbon footprint and encourage them to adopt socially and environmentally conscious practices. By integrating sustainability into our operations, we contribute to the well-being of the planet and future generations.

2.5.3. Being a Responsible Corporate Citizen

Being a responsible corporate citizen, Union Bank of India actively seeks opportunities to develop and promote eco-friendly products, services, and processes. We recognize the importance of sustainable corporate management and strive to integrate environmental considerations into our decision-making.

3. Accountability and Reporting

3.1. Individual Responsibility

At Union Bank of India, every employee is responsible for upholding the principles outlined in this Code of Ethics. Each individual must conduct themselves with integrity and professionalism, ensuring that their actions reflect the bank's core values. Personal accountability is crucial for maintaining the trust and confidence of our stakeholders. Employees are expected to familiarize themselves with the Code and adhere to its guidelines in all their professional activities.

3.2. Reporting Concerns

Union Bank of India encourages employees to report any unethical behaviour, violations of this Code, or any other concerns they may have. We are committed to providing a safe and conducive environment where employees can speak up without fear of retaliation. Employees can report concerns through designated channels, such as a dedicated email, or directly to their supervisors or the respective department. All reports will be taken seriously and investigated promptly and thoroughly.

4. Enforcement and Consequences

4.1. Disciplinary Measures

Union Bank of India views violations of this Code of Ethics seriously. Employees who breach the Code will be subject to disciplinary measures, which may include memos, suspension, demotion, or termination of employment. The specific disciplinary action will depend on the nature and severity of the violation. The bank is committed to ensuring that all disciplinary measures are fair, consistent, and in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

4.2. Legal Ramifications

In addition to internal disciplinary measures, certain violations of this Code may have legal consequences. Employees who engage in illegal activities or fail to comply with applicable laws and regulations may face prosecution and legal proceedings. Union Bank of India will cooperate fully with law enforcement authorities in the investigation and prosecution of any illegal activities.

Employees are reminded that they are personally responsible for their actions and must adhere to all legal and regulatory requirements.

5. Review and Update

Union Bank of India is committed to continuously improving its ethical standards and practices. This Code of Ethics may be reviewed biennially to ensure that it remains relevant and effective in addressing emerging ethical challenges and regulatory requirements. The review process will involve feedback from employees, stakeholders, and other relevant parties. Updates to the Code will be communicated to all employees, and training sessions will be conducted as necessary to ensure understanding and compliance with the revised Code.

Annexure III

Ethical Considerations in Decision Making:

As you navigate the complexities of your roles and responsibilities within Union Bank of India, these questions will serve as guiding principles, steering you towards ethical choices that uphold our core values and commitment to excellence. Each question is an invitation to pause, reflect, and ensure that your actions align with the high standards we set for ourselves.

Sl. No.	Core Value	Questions to Ponder
1	Excellence	Does this decision reflect our pursuit of the highest quality in our work, services, and customer interactions? Will it contribute to continuous improvement and innovation within the bank?
2	Transparency	Have I communicated openly and honestly about this decision? Is the rationale behind it clear and understandable to all stakeholders involved? Does it promote accountability and build trust?
3	Humanity	Does this decision demonstrate respect, empathy, and compassion for all individuals affected? Does it consider the well-being and dignity of our employees, customers, and the broader community?
4	Integrity	Is this decision consistent with our ethical principles and values? Does it uphold the highest standards of honesty, fairness, and moral conduct, even in the face of challenges or pressure? Does this decision adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, and internal policies?
5	Customer Centricity	Does this decision prioritize the needs and interests of our customers? Will it enhance their experience and satisfaction with our products and services?
6	Sustainability	Does this decision consider the long-term impact on our business, the environment, and society? Does it contribute to our goal of responsible resource management and creating a positive impact on the world?

By consistently asking these questions and integrating them into your decision-making process, you will not only uphold the ethical standards of Union Bank of India but also contribute to a culture of integrity, accountability, and excellence. Remember, every decision you make reflects on our organization and its commitment to serving our customers and communities with the utmost professionalism and care.
